

1. Use crayons to draw what happens to the beam of light when it enters the prism.

Hint: remember that light bends and separates into its colors when it moves from air to something else!

2. Write the colors of the rainbow that each letter stands for:

R =

O =

Y =

G =

B =

I =

V =