

Match the pictures to see how solar energy can be used instead of other types of energy.

1. Cut out each square
2. Turn all the squares over, so you can't see the pictures
3. Flip two squares over at a time, to try and make a match!
(example: the light bulb, and sunny window are a match, because they both give light)

